Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Terrence Lee Jorgensen and Patricia Ann Jandl exchanged their wedding vows on August 13, 1957, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Terry and Pat gave life and love to four daughters, Connie, Shelly, Renee and Linda, who have blessed their lives with seven grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Terry has been active in the Parker Shrine Club and Pat enjoys her "Red Hat Society" activities, and their retirement years have allowed more time for fishing, playing golf and walking "Flash", their beloved basset hound; and,

Whereas, Terry and Pat will observe their 50th wedding anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as their friends and relatives gather to honor them on August 5, 2007, to celebrate their lives and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion in the lives of these two people who have lived exemplary lives for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 13, 2007, as
